

Labour and Human Rights Policy

Corinth Pipeworks recognises the right of all employees and stakeholders to work with dignity and believe that everyone in the Companies is responsible for having due regard for human rights.

Within Corinth Pipeworks, commitment on ethical principles is vitally important. Corinth Pipeworks supports the fundamental principles, as articulated in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights, the OECD Guidelines and the ILO Declaration of Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work. Corinth Pipeworks supports the protection of international human rights across the business value chain and will not be complicit in human rights abuses. The Companies' policies and procedures adhere to all applicable national laws concerning freedom of association and collective bargaining, non-discrimination, forced labour and underage workers in the workplace.

Corinth Pipeworks commitment relies on morals concerning the fundamental human rights set out in the International Labour Organisation's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Non-discrimination

Corinth Pipeworks respects diversity and avoids any form of unfair or unlawful discrimination in employment or occupation, in conjunction with promoting a culture where people recognise the value a diverse workforce brings. Corinth Pipeworks hires, assesses, remunerates and administer in a manner that does not discriminate in respect to gender, race or ethnicity, nationality, religion or other beliefs, age, marital status, disability, sexual orientation, political opinion, union affiliation, social or educational background. Workplace diversity at all levels is encouraged.

Equality and equal opportunities

Corinth Pipeworks does not tolerate any discrimination based on gender, race or ethnicity, nationality, religion, age, social or educational background, disability, belief, sexual orientation, or political and trade union engagement. These principles apply to the recruitment of new employees, to employees with an employment contract, and to the professional promotion of employees. The only decisive factors of employment are performance, experience, personality, efficiency, skills, qualifications, and conduct.

Freedom of association

Corinth Pipeworks upholds freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining. Corinth Pipeworks shall retain an open and constructive dialogue with its employees and shall respect employees' rights to freely associate, organize, and bargain collectively in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, in support of their mutual interests.

Forced labour

Corinth Pipeworks rejects any form of forced labour. All work performed in the companies and their business partners must be voluntary. No form of forced, compulsory labour is tolerated at Corinth Pipeworks.

Underage workers

Corinth Pipeworks prohibits the employment of individuals under the applicable statutory minimum age for workers and in any case, at a minimum age of 18, except in the cases of vocational training for young individuals. Corinth Pipeworks is against all forms of exploitation of children. The company does not provide employment to children before they have reached the legal age to have completed their compulsory education, as defined by the relevant authorities and legal restrictions. Corinth Pipeworks expects their business partners and associates to have and uphold similar standards and abide by country-governing laws in countries wherein they operate.

Harassment at workplace

Harassment (including all forms of sexual harassment and harassment based on other legally protected categories), bullying, rude or disrespectful behaviour and lewd comments are not allowed. Corinth Pipeworks prohibits any acts or threats of violence while conducting business on or off the Company's premises and in regard to external stakeholders or within the Company's people and management.

Working conditions

Corinth Pipeworks compensates their employees with wages and benefits that meet or exceed the legally required minimum. Contracts must have written agreements on employment, containing agreed terms and conditions. Employees at Corinth Pipeworks are ensured the respect of working hours set on national laws and relevant industry standards. Overtime work is voluntary, and employees are compensated for overtime work in accordance with local laws. Training is provided to all employees and Corinth Pipeworks is committed to equality of access to development and education opportunities.

Corinth Pipeworks must ensure that all employees enjoy a safe and healthy working environment and provide, a general wellbeing in the workplace. Corinth Pipeworks commits to continuously improve health and safety performance by integrating Health and Safety aspects in all operations.

Whistleblowing

Corinth Pipeworks' employees are encouraged to raise any concerns regarding violations in the implementation of this policy and the Business Code of Conduct, including harassment, intimidation or discriminatory behaviour to employees, serious health and safety risks that could threaten the health and safety of employees, as well as the public or customers. Corinth Pipeworks will accurately evaluate reported matters and where appropriate, will adopt specific corrective measures to remediate all valid reported issues. Transparent communication on any identified human rights violations will be publicly available by Corinth Pipeworks.

Compliance

Corinth Pipeworks shall comply with the provisions of this labour and human rights policy as well as national laws and regulations. Corinth Pipeworks must assess the implementation of the Labour and Human Rights policy in the planning and design of new business activities. Should there be differences between the content of this policy and the national laws or other applicable standards, the more rigorous requirements shall apply.

Governance and accountability

Responsibility for the implementation of this Policy lies with the most senior executive responsible for each company.
